The Sunday World OF TO-MORROW

will be the greatest, most admirable Sunday newspaper ever published, as is sufficiently indicated by this partial list of its

THE HEROISM OF WOMEN.

It has been proved to the satisfaction of a great many that woman is and has been proved to the satisfaction of a great many that woman is and has been more heroic than man. A list of heroic deeds by women of the State of Kew York is being made up to place on record in the Woman's Building at the Columbian Exposition. The Sunday World will publish many such instances furnished by its correspondents.

LE CARON THE SPY'S BOOK.

Lengthy extracts from an advance copy of this work will show what a sneak and liar the British Government employed for twenty-five years to apy ou Irish-Americans. Le Caron was the principal witness in the infamous conspiracy of the London Times and the Irish Unionists to injure thish National cause. A review of the book by Michael Davitt, exposing Le Caron from the Irish leader's personal standpoint, will also be published.

THE MARRIAGE SERVICE.

Many good women feel that the marriage service commonly used, which was written a great many years ago, is unsuited to their present ameliorated condition. The question of changing it will be discussed from various no units of view in the Sunpay Woald.—Should women promise to obey? Readers are invited to communicate their opinions on this and other questions pertaining to the marriage anytice.

THANKSGIVING HUMOR.

This will be a collection of pleasing efforts of American humorists, made at this genial season, dealing for the most part with turkey and to some extent with crow.

THANKSGIVING STORIES.

A number of cheerful and well-written works of fiction, telling how or why various American citizens gave thanks at the appointed time.

THE WOMAN'S PAGE.

The glorious American Woman, having duly considered her financial resources, is about to array herself in winter garments, which will be described and depicted. You will find everything in this page of peculiar importance

FOR THE CHILDREN.

The names of the great army of children who are joining the World's Santa Claus Club with the best of all possible motives will be published.

NEWS OF THE TURKEYS.

A calculation of the number of birds that will be martyred to make an American boliday. About ten million pounds of turkey will be eaten. In what condition they will come to the slaughter, and what they will cost the house-keepers.

THE ANIMAL WORLD.

The alleged queer performances of some Southern snakes will be published.

Does the joint snake leave its tail behind in parts and then take them on again? A fine new ape has arrived in Central Park, and the discovery of a station in the City. Trains leave as follows: venomous toad is reported. A baffling disease is dealing death among our boa constrictors.

All trains arrive at and depart from Grand Central Station, 42d Street; the only railroad station in the City. Trains leave as follows: 7,30 A.M.—SYRACUSE EXPRESS—Daily for Poughkerpsis and Albany. Daily except Bonday

NURSING BILLIARD BALLS.

One of the best known American professionals, once champion of the world, contributes an article showing how to nurse billiard balls. With the help of carefully prepared illustrations it will enable any capable student to master this essential part of the science of billiards.

THE FOOTBALL PLAYERS.

William T. Bull will supply on this Sunday a comparison of the Yale and Princeton teams. Some important information about the Thanksgiving Day game will also be forthcoming. All the news concerning the game, which at this time absorbs the studious youth of America, will be printed.

A GREAT SPORTING PAGE.

Form in driving, the performances of the strong man, Sandow, proposed changes in the baseball diamond, will be among the subjects treated in the Sporting Department of this newspaper.
